I DO hope you'll take time to go visit the websites of these amazing artists that we have featured this month after the news at noon. When you see the phenomenal credentials of these pianists, you can see why it can be so difficult for any piano virtuoso to "break through."

Thanks again to our SU practicum, Jennifer Reeves, who has worked so diligently to supply you with the pictures and information to be able to more easily find the CDs that you are interested in from both Just Opened, and this After-the-news-at-noon Series.

We return next week to our more regular Friday afternoon time frame for Just Opened, starting at 1PM.
